

You are invited to an event:

“Collaborative Contracting – Back to the Future or How to Build the Death Star”

Presented by

Scott Budd and Kiri Parr

on

Tuesday 26 September 2023 at 5:45 pm AEST
(registrations open at 5:30 pm)

hosted by

KING & WOOD MALLESONS
金杜律师事务所

What exactly is collaborative contracting – and when might it be appropriate to consider using rather than conventional procurement models?

Join us to hear from our presenters about collaborative contracting and what developments they are seeing in the construction market.

The event will formally commence at 5:45 pm AEST (registration from 5:30 pm). There will be time for attendees to ask questions at the conclusion of the discussion, followed by networking drinks.

Location of Event: This event is hosted by King & Wood Mallesons at their Brisbane office, Level 33, Waterfront Place, 1 Eagle Street, Brisbane QLD 4000.

This event is in-person only and will not be recorded or livestreamed.

Details of our speakers are on the next page

Please click here to register

Scott Budd

Scott Budd is a Partner at King & Wood Mallesons.

Scott is an advisor on major construction projects and major construction disputes for a broad range of clients including government, private sector proponents, contractors, financiers, owner groups and industry professionals.

Scott provides advice on all aspects of front-end project work, risk analysis and allocation, project structuring, development of delivery systems, contract and tender preparation, bid assessment and bid advice. In addition, Scott is a highly experienced construction litigator, having conducted court proceedings in all States of Australia, as well as international and domestic arbitrations.

Kiri Parr

Kiri is a member of the FIDIC Contract Committee and is the committee liaison for TG17, the task group developing a collaborative contract model for the FIDIC Contract suite.

By day, Kiri is an academic, speaker and consultant in the Australian Construction industry, challenging how we think about procurement and project delivery to drive more reliable outcomes. As a senior fellow at Melbourne University, Kiri lectures the subject Major Project Delivery - the Legal Interfaces.

Kiri is on the boards of SoCLA and DRBF Region 3 and was past president of Consult Australia, and regional counsel for Arup Australasia for 15 years.

Chaired by Megan Turner

Megan is a Special Counsel at Clayton Utz and member of the SoCLA Events Subcommittee.

Please click here to register