

The Society of Construction Law Australia is pleased to invite you to join us for a co-hosted panel session event at Pinsent Masons, Melbourne

“Navigating the AS4000 Redraft: Key Considerations from Industry Power Users” on Thursday 30 May 2024

at
5:00 pm – 7:15pm

Pinsent Masons and the Society of Construction Law invite you to join us for a co-hosted panel session event in person in Melbourne.

AS4000 was born in 1997 which makes it (just) a millennial. And, just like the generation it aligns with, it's having a quarter-life 'moment' and beginning to re-imagining its future self. In this case in the form of a re-draft.

Join us and a distinguished panel of experts and power users of the form to discuss the current proposed changes and whether the amended form will respond to the current challenges in the industry.

The panellists are:

- Phillip Greenham (Domestic & International Arbitrator)
- Alexandra Feldman (Regional Legal Counsel VIC & SA, Multiplex)
- Harrison Nurse (Senior Associate, Pinsent Masons)

With moderator:

- Rebecca Dickson (Special Counsel, Pinsent Masons)

Event Timeline

5.00pm – 5:30pm: Registration and networking
5:30pm – 5:45pm: Introductions
5:35pm – 6:25pm Presentation and Q + A
6:25pm – 6:35pm A word from our Sponsors, Pinsent Masons and Vote of thanks
6:35pm – 7:15pm Networking and refreshments

Please note this event will be in person only and will not be recorded.

The event will be hosted by Pinsent Masons at their offices at the following address:

Location of Event: Pinsent Masons (Melbourne)
Level 46, 101 Collins Street
Melbourne Victoria 3000

Cost of Event

This event is free of charge for SoCLA members (you must be logged in when registering).
Non-members - $49.50

More information on our speakers can be found on the following page.

We look forward to seeing you there

Please click here to register

Panellists			Moderator
Alexandra Feldman	Phillip Greenham	Harrison Nurse	Rebecca Dickson
 Alexandra is an experienced construction lawyer with extensive front and back-end expertise. She commenced her career in the Takeovers Group at Herbert Smith Freehills, where she worked on both public and private mergers and acquisitions, specialising in mergers in the energy sector. In 2007 she worked on the takeover of Alinta Energy by a Singapore Power led consortium and the restructure of Alinta Energy into Jemena. In 2010 Alexandra commenced working as a Senior Lawyer at Jemena's construction and infrastructure services business 'Zinfra'. During her time at Zinfra Alexandra worked on various construction infrastructure projects including the renegotiation of the Multinet and United Energy Operating Service Agreements, the Yarra Trams Power Upgrade, the construction of the Wheatstone Project in Western Australia and various pipeline projects for Jemena Gas Network. In 2015 Alexandra commenced her role as Regional Counsel for Multiplex where she has negotiated various large scale construction projects. In 2017, Alex was the recipient of the NAWIC Award for outstanding achievement by a construction lawyer.	 Phillip practices as a domestic and international arbitrator specialising in construction, infrastructure, mining and resources matters. He is recognised by a wide variety of eminent institutions, publications, and colleagues as one of Australia's foremost construction lawyers. His 35 years of experience has covered commercial work, dispute work and contract administration work. Phillip was a partner at the leading international law firm Minter Ellison for 27 years and headed the Melbourne Construction, Engineering and Infrastructure practice for 13 years. Phillip is a member of the International Academy of Construction Lawyers. He is a Senior Fellow (Melbourne Law Masters) and long-time Guest Lecturer at the University of Melbourne. Recognition by many international industry publications include his status within the legal profession as one of the 'Most Highly Regarded Individuals' in the Asia-Pacific region ('Who's Who Legal'). He is a founding board member of the Society of Construction Law Australia, a long-time member of the International Construction Projects Committee of the International Bar Association, the Dispute Resolution Board Foundation and the Resolution Institute (formerly the Institute of Arbitrators and Mediators). Phillip is also an invited Technical Advisor to the MB10 Committee, the Committee reviewing the AS4000.	 Harrison is an energy and infrastructure lawyer specialising in non-contentious matters. He has experience advising clients, contractors and public agencies about procuring, contracting and delivering commercial structures across a variety of energy and infrastructure projects.	 Rebecca is a building, construction and infrastructure projects lawyer specialising in procurement and regulatory advice, contract drafting and negotiation, contract administration and management and project delivery support. She has extensive experience advising clients and contractors about procuring, contracting and delivering new buildings (residential and commercial), industrial facilities (including renewable energy projects), and infrastructure projects (road, rail, ports and airports). Rebecca teaches construction law subjects at the University of Melbourne Law School and Monash University, and she is a PhD Candidate at Monash University (undertaking research in reforming Australia's construction laws).

Please click here to register