

Evidence Innovation in Construction Arbitration

In international construction arbitration, innovation is crucial. While technical evidence and complexity define these disputes, exploring innovative approaches can help minimise costs, delays, and enhance the tribunal's understanding. Arbitration, as a flexible process embraces creativity from parties, counsel, arbitrators, and institutions, allowing for new ways of handling evidence. A panel of experts will discuss current evidential innovations in arbitration followed by networking and refreshments.

SPEAKERS

Chris Clark
Senior Managing Director, Ankura

Timothy Goyder
Senior Associate, Herbert Smith Freehills

Marc Mannes
Lead Counsel, HanRoy

Clare McKay
Barrister, Quayside Chambers

Kala Campbell
Senior Associate, Corrs Chambers Westgarth

Dominic Carlsen
Legal Counsel, Roy Hill

Stewart McWilliam
Senior Associate, Herbert Smith Freehills

Date: Friday, 19 July 2024

Time: 4:00pm followed by networking and refreshments

Venue: Herbert Smith Freehills, 11/1 The Esplanade, Perth 6000

BOOK
HERE
NOW

CO-SPONSORS

HERBERT
SMITH
FREEHILLS

SUPPORTED BY:

ACICA
Australian Centre for International Commercial
Arbitration